

The Contemporary Music Program at the College of Santa Fe invites you to join in the music-making this fall

Gamelan Ensemble

Indonesian percussion orchestra, no experience required Jenny DeBouzek, director rehearses each Tuesday from 4:00 to 5:30 pm

Acoustic Americana

American folk music and early blues; guitar, banjo, fiddle, mandolin, bass, voice, etc.
Tom Adler, director rehearses each Monday from 7:00 to 8:30 pm

Celtic Ensemble

Traditional music of the British Isles: voice, tin whistle, flute, fiddle, mandolin, tenor banjo, accordion, concertina, guitar, piano, etc Gerry Carthy, director
rehearses each Tuesday from 5:30 to 7:00 pm

MidEast/Balkan Ensemble

Contemporary and traditional music of Eastern Europe and the Middle East: voice and all instruments
Polly Tapia Ferber and Paul Brown, directors rehearses each Thursday from 4:00 to 5:30 pm

Percussion Ensemble

Improvised, notated, and world music explorations for pitched and non-pitched percussion Angela Gabriel & Jim Goulden, directors
rehearses each Thursday from 5:30 to 7:00 pm

Collegium XXI

Contemporary classical and ancient music: voice and all instruments Steven Paxton, director rehearses each Friday from 10:00-11:30 am

$150 participation fee for each ensemble, includes 15 rehearsals over 15 weeks

The CSF Chorus

Steven Paxton, director
rehearses each Friday from 12:45 to 2:00 pm $25 participation fee covers cost of music, 15 rehearsals over 15 weeks

Participation in these ensembles is on a non-credit basis and will culminate in public performances in November and December, 2010. Rehearsals begin during the week of August 30. Ensembles and rehearsal times are subject to change based on enrollment. Appropriate musical experience and/or ability is required. For more information contact Steven Paxton at the Contemporary Music Program. spaxton@csf.edu 505.473.6196